Imprisonment: Count 2 – 16 months. Count 5 – 24 months. Total of 40 months. Consecutive sentence for count 5. Credit for time served.

Supervised Release: 3 years, with the standard conditions and the following special conditions:

1. If you pose a risk to another person or an organization, the probation officer may seek permission from the court to require you to notify that person or organization about the risk. If the court approves, you must provide the notification. The probation officer may contact the person or organization to confirm that you have provided the proper notification.
2. You must not be self-employed, nor shall you be employed by friends, relatives, or associates, unless approved in advance by the supervising officer. You must not work for cash and must provide proof of earnings as required by your supervising officer.
3. You must provide the supervising officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office. You must disclose all assets and liabilities to the supervising officer. You must not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset, without the advance approval of the supervising officer.
4. You must surrender or make available for review, any documents and/or business records, requested by the supervising officer.
5. You must not incur any new debt, open additional lines of credit, or enter into any financial contracts, without the advance approval of the supervising officer.
6. The defendant shall report to the Probation Office any and all electronic communications service accounts [as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2510(15)] used for user communications, dissemination and/or storage of digital media files (i.e. audio, video, images). This includes, but is not limited to, email accounts, social media accounts, and cloud storage accounts. The defendant shall provide each account identifier and password, and shall report the creation of new accounts, changes in identifiers and/or passwords, transfer, suspension and/or deletion of any account within 5 days of such action. Failure to provide accurate account information may be grounds for revocation. The Probation Office is permitted to access and search any account(s) using the defendant's credentials pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the account(s) to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
